

LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS.

Band concert tonight at the Hawaiian Hotel.

A concert by the Band will be given tomorrow evening out at the Moana Hotel.

The Austin mandamus was argued and submitted this morning in Circuit Court.

This is Theosophical night at Arion Hall. Subject for discussion will be "Man's Place in Evolution."

E Devauchelle, the mounted policeman, was before Judge Wilcox yesterday on a charge of assault and was discharged.

Alexander Lindsey, a graduate of the law department of Ann Arbor University, Michigan, was yesterday admitted to practice in the Supreme Court.

The remains of a horse was found yesterday by Sanitary Officer Tracy in Punahou and later discovered the man who had placed the dead animal there. He was given time to remove it and promised to cremate the horse.

John Hapa, the coon-Hawaiian, played the part of a clown on election day, dressed in a light colored suit, mounted on a frisky bay horse, and paid a visit to nearly all the polling places, creating lots of laughter and merriment.

Consul Hoare will hold a reception at the British Consulate, 1120 King street, from 11 to 1 o'clock on Monday next the 10 inst., that being the day appointed for the celebration this year of the birthday of His Britannic Majesty King Edward VII.

The schooner Kauikaeouli got a small hole punched in her by one of the Alameda's anchors which was hanging half out of the water while she fouled the steamer yesterday morning on her way out of port. The damage was not much and was easily repaired.

John Andrade's horse hitched to the buggy, ran away last evening, the buggy colliding violently with a tram car near Beretania and Alapai streets. One wheel of the buggy was broken off square at the axle, the shaft broken and the harness badly damaged. Andrade, who was the sole occupant of the rig, escaped uninjured. Whoo, B!!

RETURNS COMING IN.

Majority for Republicans Piling Up Heavy.

Further election news so far received up to this morning places Prince Cupid's majority to over 1900 votes. The following message was received at Republican headquarters from Chairman Holstein from Kohala:

"Cupid 1,707, Wilcox 1,045. Senators elected—Wood (Dem.) and Desha (Rep). Representatives—First District—Lewis (R.p.), Kakino (H.R.), Purdy (H.R.), Fernandez (H.R.); Representatives—Second District—Pulaa (Rep.), Greenwell (R.p.), Wright (Rep.), Ma'ahalupa (H.R.)."

The Island of Hawaii is about evenly divided, one Senator being Republican, and the other a Democrat with Home Rule endorsement. J D Paris and S K Pua were both defeated.

But in the Representatives, three Home Rulers and one Republican are elected in the First District, and the reverse in the Second District.

The returns from Maui and the other contiguous islands are incomplete, but the report so far received is that C H Dickey (R) has defeated Wm White (H R) for the Senate. Five Republican Representatives and one Home Ruler are elected. They are W P Hala, S Kellinot, J Nakaleka, Philip Pali, S E Kalama and Fred W Buckley, but of course Molokai is yet to be heard from, and Home Rulers hope that the result from there may change the complexion somewhat.

So far the complexion of the next Legislature is about the same as the last one, only reversed with one less in the Republican party.

CORRESPONDENCE.

The Traffic in Cattle Still in Vogue! Ed. THE INDEPENDENT:

So long as there is traffic in cattle, men will engage in that traffic and for no other purpose, of course, than to make money out of them.

So then our Hawaiian Cattle Dealers have once more succeeded in a "cheap purchase from the herd!"

Perhaps it is better that our people, the Home Rulers have lost; for, had we won we would about have stood in the same relation as our Delegate R W Wilcox, that is, with the bias and prejudice; the malice and hatred; the unforbearing and unconfiding spirit and sentiment "all round" against us; and the general hard name and repute our antagonists bestowed upon us. I therefore fear that we could have never, no never pleased, nor suited, nor satisfied, nor appeased them, etc. etc., no matter how hard we might have tried, worked and strived for to do the right, and the fair and the very best thing. They were simply against us, no matter our abilities, our honesty of purpose, our pure and unflinching convictions; our abilities for statesmanship; our true patriotism, our love and respect toward the whole people and our willingness for self-sacrifice, etc., etc.

Nay, all these and more would have never reconciled them with us. They were and are simply against us and by a horrible bias and prejudice became perverted to the truth, to that which is right, to that which is manly, and to that which is sound reason and clear judgment and a conscientious conviction should dictate to him who calls himself—a man!

Yes, we have lost the battle, and justice has once more been humiliated and thrown into the gutter! Yet, after all, better for us to suffer wrongfully from their hands, than that any one, yes, the very least should suffer on our account.

Perhaps, as already intimated, it is better we having lost in our noble cause. This from the fact that they and not we now must assume and shoulder the responsibilities, the duties, the cares, the difficulties, etc., etc. We the poor and weak and persecuted took heroic upon ourselves to attend and care and solve and to the best of our abilities, honesty and clear conscientious convictions.

Now instead for us to give, we stand in the full right to demand and let us see and exercise due patience and long suffering and forbearance toward our enemies, of whom too many have reviled, cursed and persecuted us short of any just reason or cause! However, this is again but an old, old parable from the "arena of political life!"

Better, yea, a thousand times better to be defeated with the truth and justice on one's side than to win by foul and crooked, and contemptible means! Patience, I say once more to every one and to all of our unbribeable, honest and fearless men and let's on our side; "water will find its true level in due time." Now let us respectfully demand good times, that is, plenty of work for all, good pay and treatment and a better and more honest thing all round!

Our funeral sermons will be ready in due time. Our man is not yet a corpse any way!

Yours truly, a fellow warrior,

A. MOROFF.

The Jap liner American Maru is carrying treasure valued at $1,000,000 to the Orient, and a general cargo of 3,815 tons.

Judge De Bolt yesterday held that C A Brown, manager of the li Estate, must return within sixty days or else lose his job.

The steamer America Maru arrived about 5 o'clock last evening and was docked at Naval Wharf No. 1. She leaves at 4 o'clock this afternoon for the Orient.

Two criminal cases were disposed of yesterday in Circuit Court before Judge De Bolt. Agimura, assault and battery, found guilty by the jury before noon, and was fined $25 and costs. And in the larceny case against Ah Cheong, who was also found guilty, he got ten days in jail, where he had been before.
